DESCRIPTION

Mondrian is a detached villa located in Gran Alacant, just minutes from some of the most iconic beaches on the Costa Blanca. Designed for comfort, privacy, and functionality, this home combines contemporary architecture in a privileged setting. All the villas are distributed over three floors, designed to maximize natural light thanks to large windows that connect the interior spaces with the exterior, creating a sense of spaciousness and continuity throughout the house. The Mondrian model stands out for offering private plots with gardens and individual swimming pools, allowing residents to enjoy the outdoors in complete privacy. Its functional design adapts to the needs of modern living, with spacious rooms, outdoor areas designed for leisure, and the option to personalize finishes to create a truly bespoke home.
